Waco Daily News.

TO ADVERTISERS.

THE NEWS will take advertising with the understanding that if it has not a larger local circulation than any daily paper published in Waco, no charge will be made for the advertisement.

It is reported that Tarrant county has 4000 third partyites. The Houston Post put Tarrant down for Hogg.

To Governor Hogg: Two pistols have gone off in McLennan county this week and left two corpses in their wake.

Quite an audience is expected at Hewitt tonight to hear the discussion between Messrs. Scarborough and Cravens.

A great deal is said about the class of Texas voters who want neither Clark nor Hogg for governor. Most of this class will vote the third party ticket.

The charge that Commissioner Foster scaled the cattle rates for a political purpose at Fort Worth, has never been denied or defended. It is indefensible.

The New York Sun having discovered that Hill as a presidential candidate was a failure has ceased to boom him, but has never let up on its war on Cleveland.

By reference to the local columns of THE NEWS it will be observed that the city council met in regular session last night and transacted some very important business.

The speech of Alex Terrell read yesterday by Governor Hogg was tolerably well received. The governor will read it again tonight in Dallas and again tomorrow in Sherman.

Congressman S. W. T. Lanham has been proposed for governor. He was proposed by a morning paper in Fort Worth. The same morning paper has been trying to boom Hill for president. Hill is not in it. Poor Lanham.

General Felix Robertson is doing excellent work for Judge Clark traveling over the state, while Colonel Parrott directs the organization in detail from headquarters. The campaign is assuming interesting shape and the friends of Judge Clark have reason to be very hopeful.

There should be no sentiment in this campaign other than a patriotic desire to return to a pure and undefiled Democratic administration of the government. There is nothing of late years that has contributed so much to a lack of faith in Democracy as the wholesale violation of its principles.

To Subscribers.

I have called on most of you since the 1st and some more than once. I am sure if you will give the matter a little thought you will not compel me to make many calls for the small amount of your subscription. If you still owe for this month please pay at office or leave the money at the house and oblige

JUDGE CLARK'S APPOINTMENTS.

Belton, Tuesday, April 26.
Bryan, Friday, April 29.
Calvert, Saturday, April 30.
Cameron, Tuesday, May 3.
Cleburne, Wednesday, May 4.

Other appointments will be announced from time to time. Gov. Hogg is invited to be present at any appointment and participate on equal terms.

SOME CLIPPINGS.

The Sherman Register says:

"The commission idea was new and full of fascination to the people two years ago, and the candidate who espoused that idea was culped down without examination. The commission is a law now and the voter will examine their candidates, and this fact is discouraging to Governor Hogg."

And the more he speaks the more discouraged he will be.

The Austin Evening News says:

The Quixotic address of the so called commission meeting here to the Democrats of Texas not only presumes that they are ignorant but commits the logical fallacy of appealing to their prejudices, not their reason and judgment. Nothing so well indicates the weakness of the administration's cause. The demagogues, who will say anything, assert the railroads are behind the Clark party with their millions and determined on destroying Hogg and the commission. There isn't a particle of truth in this. It is like some other assertions in the address, a "prevarication" out of the whole cloth. The railroads are taking no part in the campaign except as spectators. They can afford to be better satisfied with the commission than the great body of the people are if, as has been shown by Chairman Reagan, their receipts are greater now than before, while the people themselves are suffering from the driving of railroad capital out of the state by our anti-railroad legislation. The railroads are not spending a dollar in the campaign. The issues back of the Clark party are whether we shall keep on cutting our own throats financially or whether we shall tumble Mr. Hogg and his ruinous policies overboard, turn Texas loose and let our people return to the prosperity they had under Ireland and Ross. The railroads have nothing to do with it.

Tom Padgett bought the entire stock of buggies and carriages at the S. A. Owens & Son, United States Marshal's sale at almost nothing. A large number of them have been sold but he has still a few on hand which he offers still at remarkably low prices. It is a chance for a person of small means to buy a nice buggy and enable his wife to put on style over her less fortunate neighbors.

IT SAVED HIS LIFE.

What Padgett's Hot Baths Did for a New Yorker.

WACO, Texas, April 14, 1892.

Tom Padgett, Esq.;
Dear Sir,—I arrived in your city last November with inflammatory rheumatism, my lungs also being affected with rheumatic fever. I was given up to die and sent to Texas to prolong my life. Hearing of the benefits derived from the artesian baths in your natatorium, I went through a course of twenty-one baths. Before I undertook to take the baths I weighed 166 pounds, was very sick, with a poor appetite. After the tenth bath I could eat four good meals every day. I weigh today 123 pound, am in the best of health and will start for New York June, thanking you and all the people in Waco for the benefit I derived in your city since I have been here. Very respectfully,
JAMES GREEHY.

An Open Letter from Lewine Bros.

To the Readers of THE NEWS:

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN—We wish to address you through the medium of this paper on questions of business. It has become the custom for people who have goods to sell to advertise their wares and use so much hyperbole and exaggeration in the advertisements that the people no longer believe the full tenor of the words advertised, and when a really good offer is made they are slow to take advantage.

Not so with our EMBROIDERY SALE OF LAST WEEK. Hundreds of people will attest to bargains they actually bought. In view of this fact we will continue our
